Course Overview

Course Objectives	The goal of this course is to provide knowledge of professionally-related vocabulary in the field of Materials science and mechanical engineering as well as competence in making presentations and conducting scientific research. The course will help students to write and analyze technical texts, interpret the scientific information and prepare and deliver presentations.
Learning Outcomes	After completion of the course the students should be able to demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - experience in searching and summarizing the scientific information (plots, graphs, drawings, tables) and writing and editing research papers according to the requirements of academic style; - communication skills in the scientific fields of materials science and engineering.
Course Outline	The course involves practical classes and self-study.
Prerequisites (if available)	Foreign language (English)
Course Structure	The course consist in following parts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Translation of scientific articles (written translation); • Oral translation of the texts; • Making the presentations on the scientific subjects; • Preparing article reviews; • Translation of the video fragments;
Facilities and Equipment	Practical classes are conducted in specialized classrooms; computers are connected to the network of the School of Advanced Manufacturing Technologies with access to the internet.
Grading Policy	In accordance with TPU rating system we use: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Current assessment which is performed on a regular basis during the semester by scoring the quality of mastering of theoretical material and the results of practical activities (performance tests, perform tasks, problem solving). Max score for current assessment is 60 points, min – 33 points. - Course final assessment (exam/ credit test) is performed at the end of the semester. Max score for course final assessment is 40 points, min – 22 points. The final rating is determined by summing the points of the current assessment during the semester and exam (credit test) scores at the end of the semester. Maximum overall rating corresponds to 100 points, min pass score is 55.
